

Model Commercial Lease

Compliance with the Code for Leasing Business Premises (2007)

This document has been prepared by the MCL working group to assist users of the Model Commercial Lease. It has no legal status and the Conditions of Use of the MCL apply to it.

Provision in Code	Model Commercial Lease 1 Lease negotiations Landlords must make offers in writing which clearly state: the	Not appropriate for rent; the length of the term and any break rights; whether or	inclusion in the lease not tenants will have security of tenure; the rent review arrangements; rights to assign, sublet and share the premises; repairing obligations; and the VAT status of the premises.	Not appropriate for Landlords must promote flexibility, stating whether alternative lease terms are available and must propose rents for different	Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease lease terms if requested by prospective tenants.	inclusion in the lease 2 Rent deposits and guarantees
The lease terms should state clearly any rent deposit	Covered in the rent deposit proposals, including the amount, for how long and the	deed arrangements for paying or accruing interest at a proper rate.
Tenants should be protected against the default or insolvency of the landlord.
State clearly the conditions for releasing rent deposits and	Will need to be drafted guarantees.	specifically if relevant 3 Length of term, break clauses and renewal rights
The length of term must be clear.	Compliant
The only pre-conditions to tenants exercising any break	Compliant clauses should be that they are up to date with the main rent, give up occupation and leave behind no continuing subleases. Disputes about the state of the premises, or what has been left behind or removed, should be settled later (like with normal lease expiry). The fall-back position under the Landlord and Tenant Act	Not appropriate for 1954 is that business tenants have rights to renew their	inclusion in the lease lease. It is accepted that there are a number of	inclusion in the lease circumstances in which that is not appropriate. In such cases landlords should state at the start of negotiations that the protection of the 1954 Act is to be excluded and encourage tenants to seek early advice as to the implications.

4 Rent review
Rent reviews should be clear and headline rent review	Compliant clauses should not be used.	Compilant Landlords should on request offer alternatives to their	Not appropriate for proposed option for rent review priced on a risk-adjusted	inclusion in the lease basis.	inclusion in the lease Dasis.
For everyone elternatives to unward only rent review might For example, alternatives to upward only rent review might include up/down reviews to market rent with a minimum of the initial rent, or reference to another measure such as annual indexation.
Where landlords are unable to offer alternatives, they should give reasons.
Leases should allow both landlords and tenants to start the	Compliant rent review process.
5 Assignment and subletting Leases should:
allow tenants to assign the whole of the premises with the	Compliant landlord's consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; and not refer to any specific circumstances for refusal,	Compliant although a lease would still be Code compliant if it requires that any group company taking an assignment, when assessed together with any proposed guarantor, must be of at least equivalent financial standing to the assignor (together with any guarantor of the assignor).
Authorised Guarantee Agreements should not be required as	Landlord is entitled to a condition of the assignment, unless at the date of the	require an Authorised assignment the proposed assignee, when assessed together	Guarantee Agreement with any proposed guarantor:	and/or a rent deposit is of lower financial standing than the assignor (and its)	where it is reasonable to guarantor); or	do so is resident or registered overseas. 	uo 30 For smaller tenants a rent deposit should be acceptable as an alternative.
If subletting is allowed, the sublease rent should be the	Compliant Compilant
market rent at the time of subletting. Subleases to be excluded from the 1954 Act should not have	Compliant Compliant to be on the same terms as the tenant's lease.
6 Service charges	National State Landlords must, during negotiations, provide best estimates	Not appropriate for of service charges, insurance payments and any other	inclusion in the lease outgoings that tenants will incur under their leases.
Landlords must disclose known irregular events that would	Not appropriate for have a significant impact on the amount of future service	inclusion in the lease charges.
Landlords should be aware of the RICS 2006 Code of	Landlord must take parts Practice on Service Charges in Commercial Property and	of the Service Charge seek to observe its guidance in drafting new leases and on	Code into account (Sch 3, renewals (even if granted before that Code is effective).	Part 2) although this refers to the current version of the Code
L

7 Repairs
Tenants' repairing obligations should be appropriate to the	This is an option in the length of term and the condition of the premises.	lease Unless expressly stated in the heads of terms, tenants should	This is an option in the only be obliged to give the premises back at the end of their	lease lease in the same condition as they were in at its grant.
8 Alterations and changes of use Landlords' control over alterations and changes of use should	Compliant not be more restrictive than is necessary to protect the value, at the time of the application, of the premises and any adjoining or neighbouring premises of the landlord.
Internal non-structural alterations should be notified to	Compliant landlords but should not need landlord's consent unless they	' could affect the services or systems in the building.
Landlords should not require tenants to remove permitted	Compliant alterations and make good at the end of the lease, unless	P and reasonable to do so.
Landlords should notify tenants of their requirements at least	Tenant can serve notice on six months before the termination date.	landlord at an agreed time before the termination date asking the landlord to state which works must be removed 9 Insurance	_
Where landlords are insuring the landlord's property, the	Compliant insurance policy terms should be fair and reasonable and	- represent value for money, and be placed with reputable represent value for money, and be placed with reputable insurers. insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are	There is no obligation to
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request.	disclose commission
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused	disclose commission
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited	disclose commission
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should	disclose commission
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if	disclose commission
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period.	disclose commission Compliant
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if	disclose commission
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so.	disclose commission Compliant Compliant
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured	disclose commission Compliant
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to	disclose commission Compliant Compliant
insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at	disclose commission Compliant Compliant
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost.	disclose commission Compliant Compliant
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management	disclose commission Compliant Compliant Compliant
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management Landlords should handle all defaults promptly and deal with	disclose commission Compliant Compliant Compliant Not appropriate for
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management Landlords should handle all defaults promptly and deal with tenants and any guarantors in an open and constructive way.	Compliant Compliant Compliant Compliant Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management Landlords should handle all defaults promptly and deal with tenants and any guarantors in an open and constructive way. At least six months before the termination date, landlords	Compliant Compliant Compliant Compliant Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease Not appropriate for
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management Landlords should handle all defaults promptly and deal with tenants and any guarantors in an open and constructive way. At least six months before the termination date, landlords should provide a schedule of dilapidations to enable tenants	Compliant Compliant Compliant Compliant Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management Landlords should handle all defaults promptly and deal with tenants and any guarantors in an open and constructive way. At least six months before the termination date, landlords should provide a schedule of dilapidations to enable tenants to carry out any works and should notify any dilapidations that	Compliant Compliant Compliant Compliant Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease Not appropriate for
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management Landlords should handle all defaults promptly and deal with tenants and any guarantors in an open and constructive way. At least six months before the termination date, landlords should provide a schedule of dilapidations to enable tenants to carry out any works and should notify any dilapidations that occur after that date as soon as practicable.	Compliant Compliant Compliant Compliant Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management Landlords should handle all defaults promptly and deal with tenants and any guarantors in an open and constructive way. At least six months before the termination date, landlords should provide a schedule of dilapidations to enable tenants to carry out any works and should notify any dilapidations that occur after that date as soon as practicable. When receiving applications for consents, landlords should	Compliant Compliant Compliant Compliant Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease
Insurers. Landlords must always disclose any commission they are receiving and must provide full insurance details on request. Rent suspension should apply if the premises are damaged by an insured risk or uninsured risk, other than where caused by a deliberate act of the tenant. If rent suspension is limited to the period for which loss of rent is insured, leases should allow landlords or tenants to terminate their leases if reinstatement is not completed within that period. Landlords should provide appropriate terrorism cover if practicable to do so. If the whole of the premises are damaged by an uninsured risk as to prevent occupation, tenants should be allowed to terminate their leases unless landlords agree to rebuild at their own cost. 10 Ongoing management Landlords should handle all defaults promptly and deal with tenants and any guarantors in an open and constructive way. At least six months before the termination date, landlords should provide a schedule of dilapidations to enable tenants to carry out any works and should notify any dilapidations that occur after that date as soon as practicable.	Compliant Compliant Compliant Compliant Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease Not appropriate for inclusion in the lease

Landlords should normally request any additional information	Not appropriate for they require from tenants within five working days of receiving	inclusion in the lease the application. Landlords should consider at an early stage what other consents they will require (for example, from superior landlord or mortgagees) and then seek these.
Landlords should make decisions on consents for alterations within 15 working days of receiving full information.

Correct as at 12 July 2014